2022

Our work

260 activities of physical presence

38 capacity building activities

48 meetings with national authorities

56 meetings with international authorities

30 meetings with international organisations

20 publications and audiovisual materials

Gender and diversities

146 activities

- Organising a virtual advocacy tour to the United States, together with Arcoiris and SOMOS CDC, to report on the Vicky Hernández IACHR judgment
- Facilitation of an encounter about digital security and protection with defenders from the Mesa de Acceso a la Justicia

Land and territory

155 activities

- Observation of trials against criminalised defenders, such as the eight Guapinol River defenders and land defenders from the CNTC
- Accompanying CEHPRODEC during visits to communities, open town hall meetings and marches in the department of Olancho

Freedom of expression

14 activities

- Engagement with community radio stations to understand their needs with regards to human rights and security
- Accompanying Dina Meza of ASOPODEHU to a forum on the risks faced by journalists in Honduras

The State acknowledged its responsibility in the death of transgender defender Vicky Hernández. LGTBI+ organisations keep demanding progress in compliance with the IACHR Court ruling.

Honduran Congress repealed the Law of Secrets. However, the decriminalisation of libel and slander in the Penal Code is still pending.

The State signed an agreement with peasant organisations to seek a solution to the violence in the Bajo Aguán. After the signing, local leaders have continued to denounce violence and criminalisation

The organisations that we accompany

ASOPODEHU (since 2014)

CEHPRODEC (since 2014)

COPINH (since 2017)

ASODEBICOQ (since 2018)

CNTC (since 2018)

ARCOÍRIS (since 2015)

ARCAH (since 2022)

SOMOS CDC (since 2022)

In 2022, we accompanied SOMOS CDC in forums and marches where the organisation demanded an end to discrimination and violence against LGTBI+ people.

In 2022, we supported ARCAH's defence work through visits to the Loarque community, which is denouncing the contamination of the Choluteca River by a poultry company.
